'Sew Show' At Broadway

It's "Big Sew, Big Show" time again at the Broadway Del Amo. March 12 to 17 is the week being set aside to salute those creative women who love to see fashion come to life from a pattern.

Highlighting the week will be "Fashions That Bloom This Spring... with McCall's Patterns"—a style show featuring a complete spring wardrobe for women who sew their own clothes. Miss Rita Chalmers, McCall's stylist, is coming here from New York to commentate the local show on Tuesday at 2 p.m.

Additional plans for "Big Sew, Big Show" week include many interesting and informative activities for the seamstress. These will include demonstrations and instructions on the newest designs in zippers, efficient methods for cutting fabric patterns, use of adjust-a-matic dress forms, and the process of hand-screening.

Demonstrations will take place in the fabric center one-half hour before and after the fashion show.

Some 34 High Achievers and 33 high school honor students were honored recently with a tea sponsored by the Associated Women Students and hosted by the Tars and Spars of Harbor College. Members from Alpha Gamma Sigma, scholarship society, and entering students with outstanding high school records or top marks in the entrance exams were the guests of honor.

The cafeteria was decorated in a sailboat motif, with sailboat name cards, and large sailboats on the blackboard and room divider; a chrysanthemum spray was placed at the end of the serving table. All the decorations were made by Sharon McKay, AWS vice president, and her decoration committee, Jean Heisner and Edna Duran.

Coffee and punch were served with French pastries, open-faced sandwiches, and dips with chips.

MRS. MAYNARD MIDTHUN
... and Her Favorite Hobby

Minister's Wife Shares Recipes Most Requested By Her Numerous Guests

Mrs. Maynard Midthun, 3226 W. 179th St., in her capacity as a minister's wife, entertains quite often and has won for herself a reputation as a "good" cook.

Both Rev. and Mrs. Midthun are of Norwegian extraction hailing from the state of Wisconsin. Grandparents on both sides came from Norway and following tradition her grandmother and her mother were excellent cooks.

Since she inherited this love of cooking, Mrs. Midthun, who was reared on a farm near Madison, Wisc., studied home economics in school and belonged to the 4-H club, where homemaking is taught by experts.

The couple were married 16 years ago in Madison, shortly after Rev. Midthun returned from the service. He was taken prisoner during the Battle of the Bulge and was captive for five months. With an inherent love for good food, Rev. Midthun and the other captives wrote lots of recipes during their imprisonment. He says "it seemed to help our hunger."

After the war, Rev. Midthun attended St. Olaf college in Northfield, Minn., and four years at the Luther Theology Seminary in St. Paul.

He served as pastor of Onalaska, Wisc., for six years prior to coming to Torrance to start the new home mission, now known as Christ the King.

The couple has three children, Darla, 14, Gail, 11, and Kevin, 9.

In choosing her recipes for today's column Mrs. Midthun, who is busy with church and PTA activities, selected four for which she has had the most requests. They are as follows:

Swedish Rye Bread

Mix into a paste and let stand:
2 packages dry yeast 1 cup warm water
1 teaspoon sugar 1 1/2 cups white flour
Mix separately and scald:
2 cups milk and 1 cup water

Add:
5 tablespoons shortening 1 cup white flour
1/2 cup brown sugar 1 teaspoon anise seed
1/4 cup white sugar 1 1/2 teaspoon caraway seed
1/2 cup molasses 3 tablespoons dark Karo syrup
3 cups rye flour

Mix well and add yeast mixture. Add 2 cups white flour. Put 3 1/2 cups white flour on board. Dump rye mixture and fold in and knead until flour is used up. Place in large greased pan and let rise until double in bulk. Make into four loaves. Let rise until double. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour.

Pineapple Dessert

1 lb. vanilla wafers 1 pint whipping cream
3/4 cup butter 1 No. 2 can Pineapple
1 1/2 cups powdered sugar (crushed and drained)
3 eggs

Crush wafers fine and put half in bottom of loaf cake pan. Cream butter and sugar thoroughly. Add well beaten eggs. Spread mixture over layer of crushed wafers in tin. Whip cream and add well drained pineapple. Spread over other layers and lastly spread remaining crumbs. Let stand 36 hours in refrigerator. May be topped with whipped cream or marischino cherries.

Pudding Coffee Cake

Mix 1 cup flour, 1/4 lb. butter or oleo and 1 tablespoon water, like a pie crust. Pat onto a cookie sheet making 2 strips 4 or 5 inches wide.

Then mix 1 cup water, 1/4 cup butter and 1/2 cup sugar. Heat to a boiling point.

Add 1 cup flour as it comes from the stove. Add three eggs, slightly beaten, spooning it in about 1 tablespoon at a time. Add 1/2 teaspoon almond extract. Pour this over the crust which has been patted out. It will be thick. Bake 45 minutes or until brown in 350 degree oven.

Topping: 1 cup powdered sugar, 1 tablespoon butter, and 1 teaspoon almond extract. Add enough cream to this for spreading. Serve immediately. Enough for 10 persons.

Boneless Birds

One pound round steak or use round steak sliced about 1/4 inch thick. Cut into 3x5 pieces. Place a piece of bacon or a thin slice of side pork on each. Season with salt and a pinch of ginger. Add a little chopped onion. Roll. Hold together with toothpicks. Flour and brown in hot fat. Let simmer on very low flame for about 1 1/2 hours. Make gravy from drippings.

A St. Patrick's Day program will highlight the South Bay Homecrafters meeting to be held in the clubhouse at El Nido Park, 182nd Street and Kingsdale Avenue, Tuesday at 10 a.m.

Mrs. V. Horn, chairman of the Norwalk Home Extension group, will be the guest demonstrator. Her program will include demonstrations of baked foods, such as potatoes, included in everyday use, arranged and fixed for parties and other special occasions.

A potluck luncheon featuring Irish dishes will be served at noon, and members are requested to bring a covered dish and their own table service.

Doyle of Lomita, grandfather of the baby; Mrs. Clair Haight and daughter Patty, Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. Alan S. On March 3, several local lodge members attended the school of instruction held in Elks Temple, Los Angeles. Instructor was Elizabeth Chapman, president of Rebekah Assembly of California.

Trio Helpers Club of Lomita met at the home of Esther Hansen, Harbor City, last week for potluck luncheon and business meeting.

Discussion included the group's work with exchange students, with Mrs. Olive Mayer, Lomita, chosen to represent the club at planning sessions.
